Authorizes President to Acquire the Panama Route.

FOR FORTY MILLION DOLLARS

Honey Appropriated to Pay for It-May Proceed With Nicaraguan Route.

Washington, June 20.-The Isthmian canal bill passed by the senate provides substantially as follows: Section 1 authorizes the president to sequire for the United States, at a cost not exceeding forty million dollars, all of the rights, privileges, franchises, concessions, grants of land, right of way, unfinished work and other property owned by the new Panama Canal company of France on the isthmus of Panama, and all its maps, plans, drawags and records on the isthmus of Pasama, and in Paris, including all the apital stock, not less, however, that 8,863 shares of the Panama Railroad company, owned by or held for the use of the said canal company, provided a satisfactory title to all of said property can be obtained.

Section 2 authorizes the president to acquire from the republic of Colombia exclusive and perpetual control of a strip of land not less than six miles wide from the Caribbean sea to the Pacific ocean, and the right to use and dispose of the waters thereon and to excavate, construct and perpetually to maintain, operate and protect thereon a canal of such depth and capacity as will afford convenient passage of snip; of the greatest tonnage and draft now in use, from the sea to the ocean; this control to include the right perpetually to maintain and operate the Panama railroad, of the ownership thereof, or rainoad, or controlling interest therein, which shall have been acquired by the United States: also jurisdiction over the strip and the ports at the ends thereof, to make the necessary police and sanitary rules and regulations and establish judicary tribunals to enforce the sam The president also may acquire such additional territory and rights from Colombia as in his judgment will fa-cilitate the general purpose of the

By section 3, $40,000,000 is appropriated to pay for the property of the new Pranma Canal company and a sufficient amount to pay Colombia for the territory acquired from that country for building the canal. The president is then, through the isthmian canal commission authorized by the act to canal utilizing as far as practicable the work already done. The canal is to be supplied with all necessary locks and other appliances. Provision is made for the construction for safe and com-modious harbors at the termini of the canal and for such works of defense as may be necessary for the safety and protection of the canal and harbors.

By section 4, the president is given with the construction of an Isthmian canal by what is known as the Nicaragua route in the event that he is un-able to secure a satisfactory title to the property of the new Panama Canal ompany and the control of the necesary territory from Colombia and af-State exclusive and perpetual control by treaty of the necessary territory from Costa Rica and Nicaragua provisions as to tonnage and draft of vessels as to harbors and as to works of defense being the same as in the ection relating to the Panama route. An appropriation is made of such sums as may be agreed upon by treaty as compensation to Nicaragua and Costa Rica for concessions and rights granted to the United States. Section 5 appropriates $10,000,000 toward the project contemplated, and provides that appropriations are not to exceed in the agregate the additional sum of $135,000,000 of the Panama route be adopted or $180,600,000 should the Nicaragua route be selected.

By section 6 provision is made that in any agreement with Colombia or with Nicaragua or Costa Rica, the president is authorized to guarantee them the use of the canal and harbors upon such terms as may be arranged, for all vessels owned by those countries or by Section 7 creates an isthmian canal commission of seven members to be nominated by the president and con-firmed by the senate. They are to have charge of construction of the canal and to be subject to the decision and control of the executive. At least four of the seven are to be skilled in the science of engineering. At least one is to be an officer of the army and one other an officer of the navy. Authority is given for the employment of engineers from the army and civil life and of other necessary persons. The commission is to make reports to the president and give to Congress such aformation as may be required.

Under section 8 authority is given for the issue of $130,000,000 2 per cent gold onds to meet the expenditures author ized by the act. They are to be issued from time to time as the proceeds may be required, are to be in the denomination of $20, or come multiple of that, sum, redeemable after 10 years and payable in 20 years; the interest to be payable quarterly in gold coin. They are to be exempt from taxation, are to be disposed of at not less than par and are to be open to popular subscrip-tion. None of these bonds are to be sold to pay the sums appropriated in sections 1 and 2 of the act or the $10,-600,000 appropriated by section 5.

COFFEE SENSE.

To Drink, or not to Drink, the Question. A prominent St. Paul woman com-

ents on coffee as follows:"While I was drinking coffee I was troubled with sleeplessness and palpi-tation of the heart. I began to feel suspicious of coffee poison and having no desire to drug myself, realized how inconsistent it was for me to continue the use of anything that helped to break me down, so I quit coffee and began using Postum Coffee. Now I sleep well and consequently feel refreshed, and am much strengthened. Palpitation of the heart has ceased and altogether life seems worth

Some of our family like a little cof-fee mixed with the Postum; that, of course, is much healthler than the old fashioned coffee alone."

It is true that very strong coffee of the best flavor has a little more fascinating taste to some palates than pure Postum. On the other hand there are thousands of people that prefer the flavor of Postum, pure and simple. If coffee agrees perfectly, and people are not ill in any way, there seems no good reason why coffee should be discontinued unless there is a fear of disease finally setting up from the continued use of a drug. On the other hand, if any member of a family is alling in stomach, bowels, kidneys, eyes, or the ervous system, such a one should im-nediately quit ordinary coffee and take Postum Food Coffee. A sure result can be depended upon and a gradual feeling of health and strength will come from the change. Health, of course, is worth almost everything on earth Some people are so constituted that it is hard for them to give up a habit even if good health is the reward.but it is perfectly easy to leave off coffee one can have a well boiled cup

PEOPLE WHO ARE PASSING

E. L Goodrich of Bluff City has leased the Maxwell house at Moab, and is in this city to meet his family en route from Ogden. He will take them right on, and begin business at the hotel. Mr. Goodrich remarked today, that southern Juab county, and southwestern Colorado are fossil depositories of the most extensive kinds. The fossils are almost entirely cretaceous and piscatorial, and of a great variety both as to size and kind. One kind of fossil is the dorsal vertebrae of a sea nster of great length, and evidently worthy of considerable study. The re-mains of the great saurians are more plentiful over near Mancos Colorado and there has been considerable exploiting in that section by savants. The cretaceous deposits lie in great beds near the San Juan river, and could be easily utilized for macadamizing the streets of settlements, only those mu inches of sand in lieu of macadam or paving of any kind. However, on the Atlantic coast, there is many a road paved with shells and they make the best kind of a roadway.

Mr. Goodrich calls special attention derlie all that region, and which some day will be made use of, and perhaps that is why the Santa Fe road is exploiting the country. The coal formaburg mines in New Mexico, and as far south as the old Atlantic & Pacific road from Albuquerque into Arizona, and takes in the big mines of Gallup owned by Senator Clark. Mr. Goodrich also refers to the fact that the lay-of the San Juan river is such that the lay-of the San Juan river is such that the building of an extensive system of irrigating canals through the San Juan country is very feasible, and a vast area of land at present a dreary, arid waste, would be thus redeemed and brought under cultivation. He believes that in time this will be done as the country becomes settled up, and land becomes more and more valuable.

They are well known to be no mincers of words or tactics in the ring, and it may be confidently promised that those who go to the affair on Monday night will see "a run for their money." There are more reasons than one why a good contest should be seen on Monday night, and both the men and the management realize that there must be no "fid-dling" in the bout.

MUSICIANS PLAY BALL. Sousa's Professionals Defeat Team From Marines.

Sousa, the march king, knows how to play ball as well as conduct a band, as was found out in Philadelphia last Saturday; and the game is of interest in this city, because two Salt Lake boys, Abe Levy pitched, after the first inning, and his brother Theo played left field. These two promising young musicians are well known in this city and state, and before joining Sousa's band were of remarkable promise. The conwere of remarkable promise. The contest was held on the Willow Grove grounds, between a picked nine from Sousa's band and the Marines from League Island navy yard, and the musicians won, 13 to 7. Sousa himself pitched during the first inning, and the Balledokia North American of June 1981. Philadelphia North American of June 15, thus describes his performance: When Umpire Schotterback said 'play ball," the versatlle athlete, musician, composer and author cast an eagle eye over the field, noted that his men were all in place and ready to come in on the first beat. Then he spat on the new bail, threw his right leg around in front of the left, raised his arm above his head, lunged forward and the um-pire said "strike one."

Hopkins, the Marines' big third baseman, had pounded half a ton of wind. them without and s He missed the ball by six inches. Capt. to do so or get out.

"I can hardly say that it is my favorite sport," he replied. "I am more fond of horseback riding and shooting, but it is, by long odds, my favorite game." "When I was a youngster the baseball king was the king of all. I played ball in those days rather than eat. I kept up the game until I was 35 years old, but of late I have got out of practice." chicago, June 20.—There will be some radical changes in football this year, according to the Tribune's Philadelphia correspondent. The most important revision was a rule providing that the opposing teams should change sides after each touchdown scored or field goal kicked.

The other radical change is in the kicking of goal from touchdown.

Sousa trimmed his black beard with a delicate but muscular hand and walted for Harper to return the ball. The crowd yelled, Mr. Sousa poised on his left leg again and Schotterback said

"strike two."

"Knock the cover off her, Hoppy!"
shouted Happy Joyce, the first base-

Mr. Sousa sent in a slow out-curve. Hopkins struck before the sphere was half way to the place. He missed it by a mile. He also swore. Mr. Sousa smiled faintly. It was too easy. Of course the crowd cheered.

"Where did he learn how to do it?" the Marines whispered to each other.

"The old man is a wonder," the musicians on the bench said.

It was a surprise party for the marines. They had been looking for something easy. No one imagined that any man could write a march to King Edward VII and twirl the sphere for a strike-out on big Hopkins, the slugger, all in the same season. As for Hopkins, he was mad. To be struck out by a well-groomed bandmaster who, as he
